by RAY BROOKS

FLEA FIGHTER
 Into Frank Garbe's United Cut Rate Drug 'other day' strolled an older man from the hobo jungle, dog-dirty and loaded with filth. From Frank the Bo asked for powdered asafetida, the stinking stuff the Good Lord ever made! Having only asafetida capsules, Frank gave him a long sales talk about the advantages of taking it in capsule form, etc., etc. After some time the older shook his head, said no, he guessed he'd have to have it powdered because he rubbed it on his body and his clothes to keep off the sand fleas! Said he didn't see how asafetida capsules would do the job!
 Imagine that!

DAVID'S DEVELOPMENT

To a man in business there comes sometime in his life a Red Letter Day which he will always remember, tho he live to be a hundred.

When the sun comes up tomorrow David Jacobs, 13 years a Torrance plumber, will start such a day. Because Davy will hold open house all day tomorrow in his splendid new building, 1324 Cabrillo, will greet and handshake all his friends who drop in to gape, gawk & glare.

Davy's building, when purchased by him several weeks ago, was a good solid edifice, but without much class. Dave, in no time at all, whipped on a new streamlined exterior and a smart new interior. Every improvement was made with the idea of constructing a first class plumbing shop in the rear and attractive, smart appliance show-rooms in front. Result: plenty of everything, plenty of class.

David hopes to meet a lot of people tomorrow, will begin shaking hands at 10 a. m., quit tomorrow night when the last visitor has given Dave the hearty congratulations which are due him.

HARRY'S HOLIDAY

To people who only casually know Harry "The Horse" Abramson, prop. of the Home Appliance Co., he is a very fine fellow. But to the boys who work for him he is a mighty swell guy. And Shop Talk here in presents the evidence.

Last Sunday Harry & spouse Sabina gathered their flock . . . Stanley Gilbert, Bonnie Carder and C. Alexander . . . together with their wives . . . and took them all to Hollywood for a fizz, feed & frolic. To Al Levy's for the fizz went the gang; thence to Sardi's for the feed; thence to the Follies Bergere (ou-la-la!) for the frolic.

Remarkd Stanley Gilbert, "Gee, I never knew the French were such lovely people!"

LOOKING FORWARD TO CHRISTMAS

ABOUT this time every year the Christmas spirit moves mysteriously into the homes of all of us, and we begin thinking about appropriate gifts for Aunt Minnie, Uncle George, Brother Alfred and, perhaps, dozens of others. We think and sweat and worry about what gifts to give to whom. And at times it appears the problem is too much for us; that we had better just forget the whole thing.

Certainly, not all buyers are as con-founded as others. And those to whom Christmas shopping is a pleasant job are those who learned long ago that in Torrance there is ONE store where "just the right gift" for everyone can be purchased . . . on easy terms if desired. We refer, of course, to the . . .

Hit-Run Probe Continues Here

Still in a critical condition, little Takashi Unemoto, five-years-old, was reported "just holding his own" at a Los Angeles Japanese hospital where he was taken Nov. 18 after being struck by an asserted hit-and-run driver on Prairie avenue.

Continued investigation of the accident resulted in statements being given local police yesterday by some small Japanese youngsters who witnessed the injury to little Takashi that implicate Manuel Barbosa, 18, who lives on 174th street east of Prairie avenue.

Altho Manuel denies driving his father's truck on Prairie south of 174th street anytime Saturday afternoon, Nov. 18, the witnesses are said to have identified the truck as the one which struck their companion. The machine, police pointed out, does not answer their description of the truck which hit the boy, when the witnesses were questioned shortly after the accident.

It is possible that the boy was struck without the knowledge of the driver, officers asserted as they prepared to continue investigation of the accident with the cooperation of deputy sheriffs.
